Brian Andrew Haas started his career with the Hendry County Sheriff's Office as a Corrections Officer in August 2002. His life long dream became reality when he successfully completed the Law Enforcement Academy and transferred to Road Patrol on December 1, 2003.

While responding, to back up another deputy in April 2004, Brian tragically lost his life in a car crash. He was 21 years old.

The Brian Haas Criminal Justice Scholarship Charitable Trust was created by Brian's family in May 2004 to provide scholarships to HCSO employees and volunteers who wish to further their education in the field of criminal justice.

The Brian Haas Criminal Justice Scholarship Charitable Trust has awarded over $35K in scholarships.
